CATALOGUED BY DR. GEO. W. MASSAMORE,

425 Madison Avenue, Baltimore, Md.

BALTIMORE:
Excelsior Printing Co., Second and Frederick Sts.
1887.

PREFACE.

It will be observed that the terms scarce, rare, very rare, etc., do not occur (except incidentally) in this catalogue.

Collectors are as well posted as to the rarity of coins as cataloguers themselves are, so that these enticing appellations go for naught, and in the future I will not use them except when deemed necessary. A faithful description will be conscienciously adhered to.

Bids are so much for each piece. Closing figures give the number of pieces in each lot. When medals are described the closing figures indicate the size, which is given in 1–16ths, according to the American scale.

Orders for the sale will be faithfully executed by the Auctioneer's, all New York dealers, and by the cataloguer.

GEO. W. MASSAMORE.

NOTE.—Withdrawn from my last sale at $66. Mr. Newlin offered $70 after the sale. It was limited at $100, though not stated in the catalogue as it was my opinion that it would very readily sell for that, or more, for the following reasons: This is a little better than one that sold for $150 in one of Mr. Woodward's sales. It is worth twice as much as the one Dr. Ely, bought in Steigerwalt's sale for $71, and brought in the Ely sale, near the same price. Two uncirculatad ones, brought $360 and 400, respectively. The owner now limits it at $85, which certainly is very low.
